

they have already in their exhibit to the House of the condition of the warehouses, and their reflections upon the results, said sufficient to call the attention of the House to the importance of the tobacco inspections, and they will make further reports by bill or otherwise.

All of which is respectfully submitted :

ZACH. H. WORTHINGTON,
WM. M. STARR.